DIARIES NOTES

We at one point or another have all asked ourselves, "What is Extraordinary?"

And what am I willing to sacrifice to achieve that?"

In the chaos of life one can lose perspective on what is truly important.

Sometimes we wander blindly in the light, grasping at what we think is "power and glory," but when we turn out the lights the illusion is gone and we have to look closer to home for the answer. Theatre is the tool we,

the Kodiak troupe of players, have used to bring this message of a play within a play to you. If you walk away from this show realizing that it is about you, we've done our job.

Thank you for joining us!
