Director's Notes

The Nutcracker ballet and story have become a holiday tradition. Tchaikovsky's music is spell-binding and continues to delight us. Kodiak's Nutcracker is presented every three years and is an inspiration to all the dancers. Little ones dream of becoming Clara and one day, the Sugar Plum Fairy.

Over time, Kodiak has come to enjoy the talents of individuals who have become very accomplished dancers. In order to showcase their talents, many of the featured roles are double cast. In addition, the number of dancers has grown so much that double casting the youngest dancers became a necessity.

We are lucky to have Thax von Reither come to our community as this year's Nutcracker Prince. A wonderful dancer, teacher and choreographer, Thax devotes his time in Kodiak to teaching our dancers to become their very best.

Rehearsals have been challenging at times as everyone tries to be patient with each other while waiting for both casts to take their turn on stage. But the result of all the hard work and patience is the opportunity for a maximum number of kids to dance to Tchaikovsky's beautiful music in our beautiful theater, during a wonderful season in a magical ballet surrounded by all those that love them.

We wish you all a magical holiday season.

Nutcracker Synopsis

It is Christmas Eve, Clara and her brother are dozing outside of the Great Hall, waiting for the party to begin. They peek through the keyhole to see how the Christmas tree and decorations are coming. Relatives and friends begin to arrive and share the excitement of Christmas. All are gathered when the mysterious and magical Godfather Drosselmeyer makes his entrance. The children are enthralled by his toys which come to life and his entertaining high jinx.

After Fritz steals Clara's hobbyhorse, Drosselmeyer gives her a very special nutcracker. Everyone ends the wonderful evening by dancing the the Grand Marche. When the guests have gone, Clara creeps back into the Great Hall to embrace her Nutcracker. As she drifts off to sleep, strange things begin to happen. Drosselmeyer brings in his little Sand Fairies and Sand men to sprinkle Clara with magic sleeping dust.

Little Baby Mice awaken Clara. She is not frightened until the Big Mice appear and the scary Mouse Queen makes the Christmas tree and everyone grow. Her Nutcracker suddenly comes to life and leads the Toy Soldiers in a fearsome battle against the Mouse Queen and her Army of Mice. The Nutcracker is wounded. In desperation, Clara throws her slipper, giving the Nutcracker the opportunity to fatally stab the Mouse Queen. Drosselmeyer magically transforms the Nutcracker into a handsome prince.

The Nutcracker Prince is so grateful to Clara for her heroic deed that he takes her to his kingdom. Tiny reindeer lead a beautiful sleigh to carry Clara and the Prince through the Christmas Wood to the Land of Sweets.

The Christmas Tree Angels are dancing as the Royal Pages announce the arrival of the Sugar Plum Fairy with her Ladies-in-Waiting. The Prince and Clara tell about the battle. They take their places on the royal thrones and watch in delight as all the magical treats dance for them.

Finally it is time for Clara to return home. As the Land of the Sweets fades, Clara awakens and shares her wonderful dream with her mother.

Guest Dancer: Thax von Reither

Thax von Reither began dancing in 1991 with the Northwest Florida Ballet. In 1993, he joined Ballet Pensacola where he performed many lead roles. In 1995, Thax moved to Idaho and began dancing with Idaho Dance Theatre where his athletic and expressive abilities have thrilled audiences over the past several seasons. He is an accomplished choreographer and hopes to provide audiences and dancers with many more creations to enjoy in the future.
