from the author....

*From their first scrawled valentines of childhood, to the last guilty goodbye, Melissa Gardner and Andrew Makepeace Ladd III's letters envelop us in a unique nostalgia. While the images they create bring back youth's universal innocence, fears and fancies, they further reveal themselves, their goals and their dreams in a "love affair" that takes them from grade school through middle age.
And as they ponder opportunity lost and love squandered, we see the very essence of their lifelong relationship...all in the letters that were at its very root.*

LOVE LETTERS is produced by special arrangement with Dramatists Play Service, Inc.

*The Kodiak Arts Council is supported by the National Endowment for the Arts, the Western States Arts
