Arts Council

Help us to continue bringing quality performances to Kodiak. Any contribution you make to the ARTS in Kodiak, is tax deductible. We are a non-profit agency under 501(c) (3) of the IRS Code— which means that you can donate money to us for our operations and deduct that from your taxes. This is how the arts are supported in this country. We work hard to keep tickets at an affordable price for families— and that means that ticket money only covers a relatively modest portion of our costs. To bring the finest in the arts to you, we must rely upon the generosity of many. This includes government, business and private donors. If you enjoy our events, if you liked Jesus Christ Superstar, won't you please send us a check now (Kodiak Arts Council, P.O. Box 1792, Kodiak, AK 99615). We will give you a receipt for your taxes - and you will help us enrich the lives of all of us in Kodiak

We thank you for your consideration.

Director

JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR is, in many ways, a milestone for us. We have been doing the "spring musical" for over ten years now. Many wonderful shows, many exceptionally talented people, have come and gone. We have grown in expertise – both artistically and technically. The time had come to stretch our wings and take on a challenge. SUPERSTAR seems the right choice. It is very much an opera; it is sung throughout, it has tremendous range both musically and emotionally. The book is "the greatest story ever told," Jesus' last seven days on earth.

The response has been miraculous. Cast and crew have embraced the show with enthusiasm, skill, dedication, devotion, and joy. We hope that you, our audience, will do the same.

We have tried to simply and clearly tell the story – the story of Jesus of Nazareth and of supreme sacrifice for the greater good. In an age of me-ism and commercialization, I can think of no more vital story to tell. The beauty of theater is that you, the audience, will become part of the telling and actually experience the story, the joy and the anguish. We hope you will leave the theater richer and fuller, deeper and more human.

SUPERSTAR is about faith and fear, public and private responsibility, self and others, sacrifice and personal desire, personal choice and fate, free will and God's will. We cannot ponder these timeless questions too often. These conflicts are at the core of our humanity and our divine beliefs. Only our lives, as we live them, can be the answer.

~ Gerry Wilson.
